Bound volume of survey of lands in parish of Hempstead and adjoining parishes owned by William Harvey (1770)

A survey in the intire parish of Hempstead in Essex and of all the estates of William Harvey Esq, therein, and in the parishes adjoining thereto, laid out in separate and distinct farms and holdings, as they are now occupied and made to agree with the general map of survey by references to the letters and numbers therein, shewing the plans and contents of each.

Taken in the Year 1770
by Owen Swan

[66 hand-drawn maps, followed by details of each parcel of land showing the names of each of the fields and a. r. p.]
