

THE HEMPSTEAD OAK, WITCHTREE LINE.

Charles
Cooke.
1841 - 1919

SONS { Norman Cecil Myhill - (b. 15/1/1885)
 Rutland William Myhill - (b. 26/11/1885) William Henry Myhill (son)
 (b. 1877.) - 33 in 1910

The other two women are presumably wives of 2 of the 3 sons. or Henry's daughter

Henry Myhill (b. 1849) 61 in 1910

Lucy Myhill
 nee Chapman
 (approx 60)

THE HEMPSTEAD OAK, WITCHTREE LANE. ≈ 1910.

Charles Cooze.
 (69 in 1910)

See over →

Saffron Walden in old photographs
by H.C. Stacey 1980.

ISBN 0 85207 148 5

Photo No. 163 shows a pre-1914 car and "the first man on the left is Henry Myhill who farmed Dawkins Farm, Hempstead and retired to live in Ivy Cottage, London Road Saffron Walden. On extreme right is Charles Nott, who married Henry Myhill's daughter Amy, sister of Mrs. K. Holland, (widow of George Holland) who lives at the Old Mill, Wenden".

(16)

Picture of the Hempstead Oak.